Work with me on a commissioned oil painting

I'll meet with you for a free, no-obligation consultation, where we'll explore your ideas and I'll explain my process. Contact me to schedule this in advance, especially during the summer and winter months.

When we meet, I'll explain why I only paint on location at a particular time of day. You can read more about my background and experience on my website.

Prices

If you want to move forward, a deposit will secure a time slot. Prices are based on complexity, time of year, and size. There are no travel costs for locations up to 25 miles from Carolina, Rhode Island.
